

Christ Church Cathedral

Vancouver, BC | Anglican Church of Canada

The Second Sunday of Advent

December 5, 2010

The Cathedral Church of the Diocese of New Westminster
ANGLICAN CHURCH OF CANADA

Open Doors, Open Hearts, Open Minds

Christ Church Anglican Cathedral is an inclusive community of disciples of Jesus Christ serving God in downtown Vancouver through worship, ministry and outreach. Since 1888 people have met on this site to worship God and witness to Christ's love for the world. The Cathedral is enriched and enlivened by the diversity of its community. It is a place for worship, and for outreach to near and far. It is a place where faith is nurtured and all age groups are welcomed. The performing and visual arts find a home here. This is a safe, welcoming and positive space for GLBT people, their friends and families.

ACCESS: 🚗 Free parking at Park Place Parkade (on Hornby St.) on Sunday mornings, weekdays after 6:00pm and for other events as noted. Parking cards are available from greeters or download one from the website. Bike racks are also available in the parkade. The Cathedral is also well-served by public transit. Details of routes and schedules may be found at: www.translink.bc.ca ♿ Wheelchair ramp — at the east door on Georgia St., drop-off is possible in the lane.

ASSISTANCE: ASL interpreter for the deaf community — communicates the 10:30am service from in front of the ambo. 🔊 Loop system is in place in the nave and chancel, simply adjust the settings of your personal hearing device. Large-print books and bulletins — available from greeters prior to the 10:30am service.

KNEELER CUSHIONS: Cushions are available in the Narthex for those who wish to kneel in prayer.

CHILDREN & YOUTH: Activities for children of all ages are available during the 10:30am service.

AFTER THE 10:30AM SERVICE: Coffee and tea are served in the Parish Hall following today's service.

IF YOU ARE VISITING TODAY... and are interested in becoming either a member or a Friend of the Cathedral, you are invited to fill in the Visitor's donation envelope, add it to the collection plate or hand it to a greeter. Find out how you can participate by speaking to a member of the welcoming team.

The Dedication of the "Woman at the Well Window"

Given to the Glory of God and in thanksgiving for the life of Jane Donegani Short

In the East Chancel of Christ Church Anglican Cathedral

The Second Sunday of Advent, December 5, 2010.

Welcome from the Dean

All are invited to join in the hymn

1. A woman by a well at noon met Christ the living Word
He spoke the truth and touched her soul-- she recognized her Lord
The living water ever flows from God, the One in Three O give this water for our souls that thirst to be set free.
2. Not on this mount nor Zion's hill does God the Spirit live
But in the hearts of faithful ones who learn how to forgive
The living water ever flows from God who in Christ we see—
O give this water for our souls that long to live in Thee.
3. In spirit now and truth we come to worship God's great name
We bring ourselves just as we are our triumphs and our shame
The living water ever flows from God the Spirit free-
O give this water for our souls that yearn to live for Thee.

(Words: Peter Elliott (2010); tune Kingsfold)

Let us pray. (Silence)

O Lord God, the whole world is filled with the radiance of your glory:
Accept our offering of this window which we now dedicate to you for the adornment of this place and the inspiration of your people. Grant that as the light shines through its many colours, so our lives may show forth the beauty of your manifold gifts of grace; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Isaiah 11:1-10

Give the king thy judgements O God,
 and thy righteousness unto the king's son.
 Then shall he judge thy people according unto right,
 and thy poor with justice.
 The mountains also shall bring peace,
 and the little hills righteousness unto the people,
 He shall keep the simple folk by their right,
 save the children of the poor and punish the wrong doer.
 He shall live as long as the sun,
 and while the moon endureth, from one generation to another.
 He shall come down like the rain upon the mown grass,
 even as the showers that water the earth.
 In his time shall righteousness flourish;
 yea and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.
 Let his name endure forever;
 let his name continue as long as the sun.
 Let all the tribes of the earth be blessed through him and let all nations call him happy.

Sequence Hymn

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming (Blue 117)

High voices
 All
 Low voices

The musical score is written for three parts: High voices, All, and Low voices. It consists of two systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The first system contains the first three lines of lyrics, and the second system contains the remaining four lines. A fermata is placed over the first measure of the vocal line in both systems. A rehearsal mark '7' is placed above the final measure of the first system.

Presider

All

Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,
I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Prayers of the People

 In the Anglican Cycle of Prayer we pray for The Lusitanian Church (Portugal); in the Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for our Bishop Michael Ingham, our partner diocese of Taiwan and Bishop David Lai, and St. Andrew, Kaohsiung, Taiwan, The Mission to Seafarers, The Ministry Resources Committee, The Cathedral Chapter; in our Parish we pray for the Cathedral Council, Chapter, Trustees and Wardens.

Response

Presider

Most merciful God,

All

We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider

Almighty God, have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

You are invited to greet those around you in the name of Christ.

Celebration of the Eucharist

The Offertory During the singing of the hymn you are invited to make a financial offering to further God's mission through the work of the church using the envelope enclosed; tax receipts are issued for identified gifts of $10 and more. Your financial gifts and food - to be distributed by the Lutheran Urban Mission Society- together with the bread and wine are brought forward and presented at the Altar as a sign of thanksgiving to God from whom all blessings flow!

All

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

Eternal God, Source of all being, we give you thanks and praise for your faithful love. You call us into friendship with you and one another to be your holy people, a sign of your presence in the world.

When those we trust betray us, unflinchingly you remain with us. When we injure others, you confront us in your love and call us to the paths of righteousness. You stand with the weak, and those, broken and alone, whom you have always welcomed home, making the first last, and the last first. Therefore we raise our voices with angels and archangels, forever praising you and singing:

Sanctus

R.G. Lang

The musical score for the Sanctus is written in G major and 4/4 time. It begins with an 'INTRO' section marked 'mp' and 'ALL unison'. The first line of music is for the vocal line, with lyrics 'Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord, God of'. The second line continues the vocal line with 'pow - er, and God of might.' and includes a 'harmony' section for the organ. The third line is for the organ, with lyrics 'ho - ly, Lord, God of pow - er and God of might.' and is marked 'ORGAN INTERLUDE'. The fourth line is for the vocal line, marked 'A tempo' and 'Sops/Altos', with lyrics 'Heav'n and earth are full are full of your glo - ry, are full of your'. The score includes various dynamics such as 'mp', 'mf', and 'f', and includes a 'harmony' section for the organ.

Blessed are you, O Holy One: when Hagar was driven into the wilderness you followed her and gave her hope. When Joseph was sold into bondage, you turned malice to your people's good. When you called Israel out of slavery, you brought them through the wilderness into the promised land. When your people were taken into exile you wept with them by the river of Babylon and carried them home.

Affirmation

I accept and absorb all the strength of the earth to keep my body hard and strong;
I accept and absorb all the energy of the sun
to keep my mind sharp and bright;
I accept and absorb all the life force of the ocean to cleanse my body and bring me life;
I accept and absorb all the power of the wind
to cleanse my spirit and bring me life;
I accept and absorb all the mystery of the heavens,
for I am a part of the vast unknown.
I believe God to be all these elements,
and the force that unites them;
And from these elements I have come,
and to these elements I shall return;
But the energy that is me will not be lost.

Share the Gifts

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant. The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. If you wish to dip bread in the wine, extend one hand for a wafer. Both wine and unfermented grape juice are served, grape juice is administered from the pottery chalice. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request in the East alcove.

Prayer and Laying-on of Hands for Healing

We invite those wishing particular prayer for themselves or on behalf of someone else, or to share in a prayer of thanksgiving for blessings received, to come to the front of the line to receive the bread and wine. Immediately after receiving, go to the prayer station. Give your first name and in a low voice briefly state your prayer need. The prayer team will lay hands gently on your shoulders and after a short silence, they will pray quietly for you.

While the communion is being administered, we respectfully ask that you keep the silence — this is a time for quiet prayer and meditation.

Cathedral CHRONICLE

Please send your Chronicle submissions by email: mark@cathedral.vancouver.bc.ca, phone: 604.682.3848 ext. 21, or in person to the Cathedral Office 10 am – 4 pm, Monday – Friday.

Today

Welcome

The Cathedral welcomes visitors, and the community is glad that you have chosen to worship at Christ Church Cathedral, Vancouver this morning, the Second Sunday of Advent. The preacher at both morning services will be The Rev. Alisdair Smith. Music in worship at the 10:30 Parish Eucharist will be led by the Cathedral Choir with Rupert Lang, Director.

If you have questions about this Christian community please speak with a member of the Greeting Team or speak with a member of the Welcoming Table ministry team.

If you enjoyed the sermon this week, audio versions of our sermons are available free of charge on our blog site cccvancouver.libsyn.com, and sermon texts are available on the Cathedral's website, www.cathedral.vancouver.bc.ca.

Music Notes

Willie Zwozdesky, Director of the Vancouver Men's Chorus, commissioned me to write a setting for his choir of a poem called Affirmation, by Dr. Peter Jepson-Young.

The commission was sponsored by the Dr. Peter AIDS Foundation, and the premiere was the spring of 2000.

The setting heard this morning was arranged for mixed voices and dedicated to Dr. David Suzuki and Christ Church Cathedral, October 30, 2002.

It is sung today honouring World Aids Day and the 20th anniversary of the founding of the Dr. Peter AIDS Foundation.

Advent and Christmas Chronicle Deadlines

In the next few weeks an incredible amount of print material will be generated in the Parish Office, and the Cathedral's #1 printers The Letter Shop can get overwhelmed with the workload. In the interest of lessening that burden, Cathedral Communications is trying to spread the print jobs out over a period of weeks. In order to make this a success deadlines have been adjusted. Thank you to all who have made submissions for the upcoming bulletins! December 1st was the deadline for the December 12th, 19th, 26th and January 2nd issues. Please note that no further submissions for these bulletins will now be accepted due to early print dates! The deadline for submissions for January 9th is Wednesday January 5th.

Coffee Hour

Coffee hour will only happen at 9am on today to make the transition out of downtown easier for parishioners attending the 10:30am service. Bochabelo cookies will be available!

Christmas Fair

Yes it's getting closer. The annual Christmas Fair will be next Sunday December 12th. A great opportunity for Christmas shopping. Please start thinking about what you can make for this great event!!! All proceeds will be shared between the church at Kingcome and the Cathedral's Sandwich Project. Non-perishable items for sale can be delivered on Sunday Dec 5th - to the office. Items can also be delivered to the Hall on Saturday the 11th in the morning when we will be setting up.

Cathedral Justice Group Meeting

The next meeting of the Justice Group will be today, immediately after the 10:30 service. All are welcome to attend.

Cathedral News & Notes

2011 Offering Envelopes

If you have selected to give to the Cathedral using the printed, numbered offering envelopes, these are now ready for pick up as follows: Dec 5th at the coffee hour between Services. Dec 12th and 19th from the Narthex. They are also available for pick up weekdays from the Parish Office. Please note that in order to save the printing of an additional 25 boxed sets, Parish Administration has had to re-assign 11 people with a new box number. If you have changed the method by which you wish to give, and no longer require your envelopes, would you please notify Vincent at 604-682-3848 or vincent@cathedral.vancouver.bc.ca - With Thanks!

Ordination

The ordination service happening this evening at 7pm is a particularly joyful one for the cathedral community - Chris Dierkes, our Cathedral curate, is being ordained to the priesthood. Chris will be celebrating with his family after the service but there will be a chance for the cathedral community to fete him on Tuesday 7th December when he presides at the Eucharist for the first time. This is happening at 7:30pm and will be followed by a reception in the Hall. Please come and celebrate with Chris on either or both of these special days.'

The Festival of Nine Lessons & Carols

December 19th at 4:00pm the Cathedral Choir under the direction of Rupert Lang leads the worship in what is truly one of the best Christmas experiences of the season. After many absent years, A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols returned to the Cathedral's worship programme in 2006 and it was hugely successful. Make plans to attend and bring your friends and families!

We need your support

Thank you for worshipping here, your Cathedral home in Vancouver! Will you consider a generous donation to help cover the costs of today's service and to support our compassionate care in the community throughout the year? In response to God's generosity, this community seeks to engage with the world generously. Did you know, for example, that we feed hundreds of street-involved people every week? We also provide care for the elderly and for the sick and bereaved. And we open our doors wide, for all that seek sanctuary, and on days like this, for all those that seek beauty and inspiration! These ministries cost the Cathedral over $4000/day, every day of the year. The true costs to the Cathedral on days like this approaches $25/person. If your circumstances allow, please think of leaving a generous donation in the donation envelope provided, in response to God's abundance all around you! (And don't forget to make your gift before December 31 to receive a tax receipt for 2010.)

Yoga at the Cathedral

The last class of Yoga for 2010 will be on December 16th! Class will resume on Thursday, January 13, 2011. For more information please contact Suzanne Smith.

Cathedral Library

The Library will be open on December 12th at 12:15.

Calendars Are Here!

The 2011 Canadian Church Calendar features photographs of Anglican churches, hymn verses, biblical texts, important dates, and liturgical colours. Please stop by the Parish Office to purchase a Calendar or two—they sell for $5.00 each. There are only 15 calendars left!

Christmas is Coming!!

The PWRDF christmas cards have all sold very quickly this year. Many thanks to everyone who supported the Primates' Fund in this way. If you would like to learn more about the wonderful work done by PWRDF please visit our table in the hall after the 10.30 am service.

Flower Dedications

Flower dedications will be collected for the next two Sundays. Dedications will be collected after the 10:30 service: December 12th (after the 8am & 10:30 services) and on December 5th dedications will be taken between services only (*Santa Claus Parade). A table will be set up in the Parish Hall.

Greeters Needed for Christmas Services

I hope you have finished your Halloween candy because it is time to talk about Christmas! In particular, about the spectacular concerts and services we will be hosting on Christmas Eve. Thousands of people will be visiting the Cathedral and we need some friendly faces to welcome them to the Gospel Christmas at 1pm, Carols for the City at 4pm and the masses at 8pm and 11pm. If you can help at any of these services please contact Lynwen Clark via email - lynwen@gmail.com - or leave a message in the office.

Discover The Truth About Santa Claus

THE ST NICHOLAS DISPLAY AT CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL NOVEMBER 19 - DECEMBER 19TH

Christ Church Cathedral is privileged to host this display, available for viewing during visiting hours — a series of colour panels that illustrate and tell the true story of St. Nicholas — the inspiration for Santa Claus. A great activity for families! The Display will now be available until December 19th - by popular demand!

New Cathedral Choir CD

ANGELS FROM HEAVEN CAME - A NEW CD
FROM CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL CHOIR

Just in time for the expectation of Advent and the joys of Christmas, the Cathedral Choir has released their newest recording, a collection of music for this festive season.

The music ranges from the short but perfect O Radix Jesse by Healey Willan to extended works such as Rupert Lang's How Like an Angel and Herbert Howell's Long, Long Ago, and from polyphony by Palestrina and Sweelinck to modern works such as the title track.

Angels From Heaven Came costs $20 and will be available in the Parish Hall, Dec 5 (9:00-10:15 only - Santa Claus Parade), and Dec 12 (between Services, and after the 10:30). It is also available for download on iTunes and Amazon MP3.

New Forty Minute Forum Series

A chance to engage with intelligent and articulate people who have something entertaining, stimulating or challenging to say to Cathedral parishioners and friends. Our diverse speakers are from: the arts, including drama, writing, television, film; government and politics; religion; education; not-for-profit organizations; etc. Free admission, free beverages. Sundays, 9:15AM, in the Park Room.

NEW SCHEDULE!

January 16: Diane Loomer (Director of Chor Leoni)

January 23: Bill and Lorna Orr (members of CCC, physicians who work in China)

January 30: Brad McDougall (Eye Doctor who works in Somalia)

February 6: John Innes (actor)

CCC Recycling Volunteers

Throwing away tins, milk containers, plastic bottles in the kitchen of the Church? Don't! We are now collecting all recyclables at CCC and are looking for a few volunteers with vehicles to periodically drop off our recyclable tins, milk containers, plastics, etc to city recycling depots. Normally there will be a couple of large garbage bags full one or two times a month to drop off. If you are interested in helping with this green initiative, contact Mark Kowalk, Building/Events Manager. He has all the details and a list of depots which accept drop-offs. Thank you.

Wednesday Fellowship

Our next gathering will be at 2 pm on December 8, at King Edward Court. As we delight in having new members or folk willing to bake or drive, do give Lesley Godwin a call at 604 224 4261 for more information. Hope to hear from you!

Thanks!

Many thanks to all those who helped with our Bochabelo Book Sale. Thanks especially to the generosity of Kate Walker, Ron Jobe and Christina Watkins and to our 'guardian angel' Sondra Marshall, we raised more than $1,000. Proceeds will go to the Soweto Home-Based Caregivers – our HIV/AIDS African Outreach Project.

Please join us today at our regular HIV/AIDS

Outreach meeting in the Park Room at 12:15. Our speaker will be Ann Frost, a member of the National Advocacy Committee of the Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign. The Grandmothers to Grandmothers Campaign is composed of some 10,000 women from more than 240 groups from coast to coast who speak on behalf of a large network of hundreds of thousands of other like-minded Canadian voters, whom we call "grandothers." They have worked tirelessly to persuade the Canadian government to enact changes to the Canadian Access to Medicine Regimen (CAMR), making it easier to send anti-retroviral medicines to developing countries. These changes were recently rejected by the House of Commons Committee on Industry, Science and Technology, a group heavily influenced by the Canadian pharmaceutical industry. While these changes were defeated in committee, the Grandmothers were not. Come and hear Ann speak on the work of the Advocacy Committee and give us 'grandothers' here at Christ Church some pointers on how we can still help right now to support a Private Member's Bill.

We'll also have an opportunity to sign a Christmas greeting to the caregivers at the Soweto Home-Based Caregivers Cooperative.

Elsbeth Richmond

The Maundy Project

The Maundy project, the Cathedral's outreach Ministry for the downtown community, gives out Christmas gifts to our homeless and hungry congregation with whom we share meals throughout the year.

Vancouver's streets can be very wet and very cold, and therefore very dangerous, for these folk. So this year we are creating loving and life-giving gift packages for them that include: socks, gloves, toques, scarves, razors and shaving cream, deodorant, toothbrushes and toothpaste, and candy! Last year we served nearly 100 people with gifts like these, leading to 200 warmer and drier feet, 100 warmer noggins, and even more smiles! This year we need your help with donations of the items listed above. We plan on giving out these gifts on December 16, so we will be warmly accepting your generous donations of these items in the Parish Hall on Sundays December 5 and 12th. The need is great this year, and we are so grateful to those that respond to it with God's abundant generosity!

Louise Kenwood

Mission to Seafarers

Each year the Mission to Seafarers collects shoeboxes filled with small gifts, candy, socks, toques, scarves, mitts, games, etc. to wrap and give to the seafarers that come into port over the holidays. Last year the Mission gave away 2500 shoeboxes! This is a call for donations of multiple items, including those above. Please find the Mission to Seafarers table downstairs during coffee hour with information for those who wish to donate items! Speak to Helen Williams for more info! Please see Helen if you would also like to donate knitted items such as toques or scarves. December 12th is the last day for donations!

Gift Collection for Downtown Eastside Women's Centre

Parishioner Wendy Feilden has placed marked boxes in the Cathedral office where you can leave small gifts for women (scented soap and other women's bath products are popular, but, please, no monetary gifts) wrapped or unwrapped, to benefit the Down-town Eastside Women's Centre. I'll be delivering collected gifts to the Women's Centre, where they will be added to gift boxes assembled by centre volunteers, and distributed to centre members at the centre's annual Christmas dinner. Consider a donation, and let's help brighten the Christmas season, for some of the women most at need, in Vancouver. Thanks! Wendy Feilden

Guatemalan Fair Trade Coffee

December 19, after the 10:30 service, will be your next opportunity to buy Guatemalan coffee. This fair trade, shade grown, bird friendly (there are no nets) coffee is imported green, then roasted and packaged by a dedicated band of volunteers in Vancouver. Both foil bags and Guatemalan woven gift bags will be available on December 19. The coffee comes in medium and dark roast, whole bean and ground. Proceeds support wonderful projects-- the Rev. Emilie Smith's mission in Quiche, Guatemala, the local coffee farmers there, and the Bocha-belo project. Do come to the table to check it out when you buy a cookie.

Connection Cards

In your leaflets today you will find the Cathedral's new Connection Cards. If you want to communicate with someone at the Cathedral, change your address, or just let us know that you're new here, you are invited to fill out the enclosed Connection Card and to put it in the offertory plate or to hand it to someone with a silver badge after the service. If you are a newcomer, you can indicate that you wish to receive your welcome package and free gift, compliments of this Cathedral community!

Who's Preaching?

December 12 - Dean Peter Elliott
December 19 - Archdeacon Ellen Clark-King
December 24 - Mass for the City - Dean Peter Elliott
December 25 - Children's Story
December 26 - The Rev. Chris Dierkes
January 2 - The Rev. Helen Worley

Are you on Facebook?

The Cathedral has a fan page on Facebook, where we post links to articles from both clergy and laity, notices about upcoming events, and links to interesting articles on God, Anglicanism and everything church. Just search for us in the Facebook search toolbar under "Christ Church Cathedral Vancouver." If you like us and want to be updated whenever we add something interesting, just press the "Like" button. We'll do the rest! And you can opt out at any time.

Explore: Christ Church Cathedral

Are you new to Christ Church Cathedral? Are you interested in finding ways to make a deeper connection with the church? We invite you to Explore Christ Church Cathedral! This four-week series will help to introduce you to the Christ Church Cathedral Vancouver community. Each week, we will explore an aspect of our faith journey, and investigate how our faith is calling us to learn more about each other, Christ Church Cathedral, and the world beyond our walls.

The series will meet on four consecutive Tuesday nights. The series begins on Tuesday January 18 and ends on Tuesday February 8th. Beginning promptly at 7 pm and ending on time at 8:15 pm. This course is only for those who have recently become members of CCC, are interested in exploring our life, or have been attending for some time and are interested in potentially becoming members.

Sorry, because of the comprehensive nature of this course, we cannot accept drop ins. Please register beforehand by contacting the parish office - 604-682-3848.

Evening 1 (Jan 18) Introduction, History, and Vision

In this evening we will introduce ourselves, explore the history of Christ Church Cathedral, its current life, and vision moving forward.

Evening 2 (Jan 25) Spiritual Life

In this evening we will discuss foundational practices for relating to God. In particular we will discuss worship and personal time for prayer and reflection in daily life. The evening includes brief instruction and practice of ways to form a deeper life of prayer and contemplation.

Evening 3 (Feb 1) Community

In this evening we will discuss ways in which to form meaningful bonds with others in the church. Community is at the heart of the Christian life and in the Christian understanding at the very heart of God (i.e. The Trinity).

Evening 4 (Feb 8) Compassionate Service

In this evening we will discuss the various ministries of Christ Church Cathedral. One of the hallmarks of the Christian life is generous service. At Christ Church Cathedral we strive to follow in the way of Jesus who came to serve and to love one another.

Community Events

Please refer to posters in the Cathedral's Community Display Case for more information about all or some of these events.

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL YOUTH MINISTRY

Kate Newman, Children & Youth Ministry Coordinator.

Advent Calendars for Children

We have 60 advent calendars with bible verses for the children of the congregation. Come and see Kate and make sure that you get yours. Thank you to Helen Williams for her introduction of the advent calendars today.

Emilie & Kerry continue teaching

What a great team! Kerry and Emily continue to inspire the children downstairs today while they help the children make their own books and think about the gospel readings.

St. Nicholas Display downstairs

Did you get a chance to look at the St. Nicholas Display last week? Take a look at it today. It is down in the lower hallway complete with pictures, stories and the history of St. Nicholas. Discover the real meaning of Christmas through the story of this fascinating saint.

Special Thanks to Hal Carrothers

Thank you, Hal for your leadership in the Children's Church! Leaders like you make Christ Church Cathedral an even better place to be.

Prayer Book

Please continue to send cherished prayers that you have memorized from your childhood to Kate so that we can create our own small book for prayers for the children in the congregation to commit to memory. Send yours today to kate@cathedral.vancouver.bc.ca

Informal Costume Trials

Children! If you are interested in being part of the pageant (and we hope that you are!) please check in with Kate and then go to the cloak room to choose your costume with Joan Seidl today. Thank you!

Christmas Pageant

On Saturday December 18th, there will be a Christmas Pageant Rehearsal from 10-12 in the Nave. Performers will be asked to attend a 9:00 AM costume change and rehearsal on Sunday December 19th too. The performance will be during the 10:30 Eucharist also on the 19th of December. In the Sundays leading up to the 19th, Kate will make individual appointments for costume trial. Special thanks to Joan Seidl who makes the pageant possible each year through her incredible work with the costumes.

January 23rd is the next Pass It On Parenting

Parents can look forward to another Pass It On Parenting lead by Kim Hardy. This will be about songs that families can share at home – simple effective ways of making prayerful song part of daily family life. Come spend time with other Cathedral Parents after the 10:30 Service in the Park Room on January 23rd. Mark it on your calendars now.

Children, join the other children!

Children, come down and join the other children for fun, stories and art! Follow the banner downstairs after the Children's Reflection. There is a supervised nursery with toys for children who are very young and not accustomed to being in a class environment.

Christmas Bake Sale

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 12TH, 2010

Notes from the Deacon

There is a theme in the readings this week; the world as it is with all the ignorance, injustice and oppression that goes with it and the vision of God's world where 'righteousness flourishes and peace abounds.' Our task is to choose; which world do we want to inhabit?

Last week the poem of David Whyte was received with a lot of interest. I would like to offer another for reflection during this Advent season that I think works well with the scriptures. This poem is also found in a book edited by Roger Housden called Risking Everything: 110 Poems of Love and Revelation, 2003.

Sweet Darkness

*When your eyes are tired
the world is tired also.
When your vision has gone
no part of the world can find you.
Time to go into the dark
where the night has eyes
to recognize its own.
There you can be sure you are not beyond love.
The dark will be your womb
tonight.
The night will give you a horizon
further than you can see.
You must learn one thing,
The world was made to be free in.
Give up all the other worlds except the one to which you belong.
Sometimes it takes darkness and the sweet confinement of your aloneness to learn anything or anyone that does not bring you alive is too small for you.*

by David Whyte From The House of Belonging

Blessings this Advent season.
